

Books Without Borders®

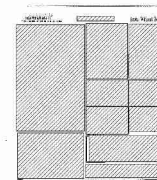

BWB Author Spotlight

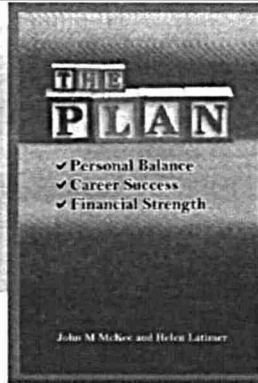

About the Author: Mary Mallory serves as a member of Hollywood Heritage's Board of Directors, where she acts as a docent for the Hollywood Heritage Museum. She is also a member of the Cultural Affairs Committee of the Studio City Neighborhood Council, which organized the 75th Anniversary of Republic Studios in 2010. She is a photograph processor at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences' Margaret Herrick Library, and holds a master's in film history from the University of Texas at Austin. In addition, Mallory acts as a theatre critic for "The Toluca Times" and has appeared on Turner Classic Movies.

"Hollywoodland" is a visual history of the neighborhood's development, detailing its construction, amenities, famous homes, residents, movie locations, and one of the world's most famous icons, the Hollywood Sign. Hollywood Heritage salutes the publication of the Arcadia Publishing book "Hollywoodland" with an evening of slides, film, and artifacts on display in our lobby.

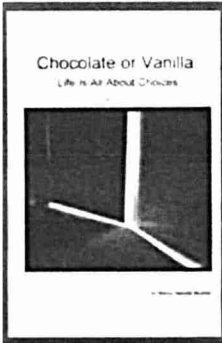

Established in 1923 by investors Eli P. Clark, M. H. Sherman, Harry Chandler, and developers Tracy E. Shoults, and S. H. Woodruff, Hollywoodland was the first themed residential development built in the Hollywood foothills. Beautiful views and elegant homes lent a fairy tale atmosphere to the neighborhood, drawing such famous artists and performers as James M. Cain, Aldous Huxley, Max Steiner, Bela Lugosi, Robert Montgomery, and Madonna as residents. One of the world's most recognizable icons, the Hollywood Sign, was constructed as a giant billboard promoting the development.

The Plan by John M. McKee & Helen Latimer offered by John M. McKee. The plan provides readers with a proven approach to creating a full and satisfying life. Applying the same time-tested methods used by many of the world's successful organizations, readers will learn how to take control of their personal, career and financial lives with a straightforward step- by step approach.

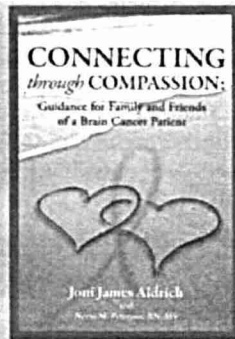

The Power of Half by Kevin & Hannah Salwen. Offered by Mariner Books. The Salwen family lived in an Atlanta mansion, but 14-year old Hannah felt it needless to live so frivolously when there are starving people in the world. With that thought, her family sells their home and lives with only half as much – donating the rest to help the needy across the globe.

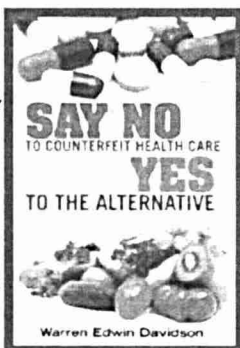

Chocolate Or Vanilla by Nancy Venditti Mueller. A journey to new beginnings through a childhood full of fear and self loathing. Discovery of inner strength as a guide. An illustration of how people can empower themselves to believe that you can do or be anything you desire.

Connecting Through Compassion by Joni James Aldrich & Neysa M. Peterson offered by Cancer Lifeline Publications. A caregiver's guide discussing how to live with and relate to someone battling a primary or secondary brain cancer diagnosis.

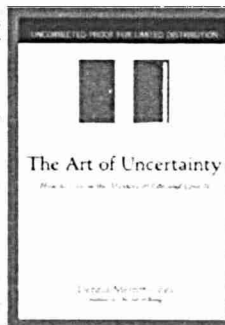

If The World Were A village by David J. Smith offered by Kids Can Press 2nd edition of title to update and expand the statistics and provides new global information on food, security, energy consumption and health as well as several new activities that will stimulate discussion and show humanity how we can become more world minded.

Say No To Counterfeit Health Care - Yes To The Alternative by Warren Edwin Davidson offered by Davidson Distributors. Since the body is a natural creation and drugs are not, it only makes sense to heal the body with good, natural foods, supplements and herbs. How people can live their lives with rare doctor intervention.

The Art Of Uncertainty by Dennis Merritt Jones offered by The Penguin Group. Drawing upon his spiritual background and the teachings of various luminaries, Jones shares 14 lessons to help readers thrive amidst the confusion of life.

Civic Engagement in an Older America by The Gerontological Society of America offered by Lightning Source. Defining a new vision of aging that focuses on the older adult population as an untapped asset. Find detailed information on civic engagement for older adults.

Dating For Dummies by Dr. Joy Browne, PhD offered by Wiley Publishing. Demystify the dating process for all ages. Get a date, plot the place and have a great time. Then beyond a first date toward a budding relationship. Prepares you to navigate social media sites to socialize, flirt and date in the 21st century.

The Great Imposter CD offered by The National Rosacea Society. Rosacea is a facial condition often confused with sunburn, acne or eye irritation. Provides warning signs and information on how and where to seek diagnosis and appropriate treatment before it increasingly disrupts their daily lives. (MS Word docs & JPEG graphics)

Secrets To Parenting Your adult Parents by Nancy Williams offered by BethanyHouse.

Licensed counselor draws from her own professional and personal experience, and also provides help to navigate transitions with love, respect and grace

Priests In The Attic by Elaine A. Small offered by Author House. This book tells the author's life story of love, loss, faith and finding her way back through redemption and hope. It takes place in Toronto during the 50's 60's and 70's. Depicts a quest to find the meaning of life.

About Seniors, By Seniors & For Seniors...

Not Born Yesterday! believes in the talent of our older adults and will help promote individual titles written by seniors. Submit your title with a photo and biography that includes your age.

Not Born Yesterday! may select your book for an author profile. Send books USPS to: NBY! BWB, PO Box 722, Brea, CA 92822 or email inquiry to: nbynews@juno.com.